PROXY STATEMENT FOR 2006 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

This statement and the accompanying proxy card, which are first being sent to shareholders on approximately January 17, 2006, are being furnished in connection with a solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of General Employment Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company"), an Illinois corporation, to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Monday, February 27, 2006, at 9:00 a.m., local time, in the Lane Room of the Hilton Suites Hotel, 10 Drury Lane, in Oakbrook Terrace, Illinois 60181.

VOTING RIGHTS AND SOLICITATION

The voting securities of the Company entitled to be voted at the Annual Meeting are the shares of Common Stock, of which there were 5,148,265 outstanding on December 30, 2005, the record date for the Annual Meeting. Shareholders are entitled to one vote for each share held except that, in elections for directors, each shareholder has cumulative voting rights. When voting cumulatively, each shareholder has the number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected (six) multiplied by the number of his or her shares. Such number of votes may be divided equally among all nominees, may be cumulated for one nominee, or may be distributed on any basis among as many nominees as is desired.

Each proxy that is properly signed and received before the Annual Meeting will, unless such proxy has been revoked, be voted in accordance with the instructions on such proxy. If no instruction is indicated on the proxy card, the shares will be voted for election of the six nominees for director listed in this proxy statement. Proxies given may be revoked at any time before the voting thereof by delivering to the Company a written statement revoking the proxy or a subsequently dated proxy, or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

A quorum of shareholders is necessary to take action at the Annual Meeting. A majority of the total outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the meeting. Abstentions or broker non-votes will be treated as shares of Common Stock that are present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. The six nominees for director receiving the highest number of votes cast will be elected directors of the Company; abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote for the election of directors. "Broker non-votes" refers to a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner not voting on a proposal because the broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power regarding that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Manner and Costs of Solicitation

The cost of preparing, assembling and mailing the proxy materials and of reimbursing brokers, nominees and fiduciaries for the out-of-pocket expenses of transmitting copies of the proxy materials to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons will be borne by the Company. The Company does not intend to solicit proxies otherwise than by the use of mail, but certain officers and regular employees of the Company or its subsidiary, without additional compensation, may use their personal efforts by telephone or otherwise, to obtain proxies.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors meets on a regularly scheduled basis to review significant developments affecting the Company and to act on matters requiring Board approval. It also holds special meetings when an important matter requires Board action between scheduled meetings. The Board held six meetings during the last fiscal year. No director of the Company attended fewer than 75% of the total meetings of the Board and Committee meetings on which such Board members served during this period.

The members of the Board of Directors are expected to attend the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All of the directors were present at the prior year's annual meeting, which was held on February 28, 2005.

The Board of Directors has established a procedure by which shareholders of the Company can communicate with the Board of Directors. Shareholders interested in communicating with the Board as a group or with individual directors may do so, in writing. Correspondence to the directors should be sent by regular mail c/o of Corporate Secretary, General Employment Enterprises, Inc., One Tower Lane, Suite 2200, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181. Any such correspondence will be reviewed by the Corporate Secretary, who will then forward it to the appropriate parties. Communications that are solicitations or deemed to be irrelevant to the Board's responsibilities, may be discarded, at the discretion of the Corporate Secretary.

There are four standing committees of the Board of Directors, which are the Executive Committee, the Audit Committee, the Compensation and Stock Option Committee, and the Nominating Committee.

Executive Committee

The Board of Directors has an Executive Committee consisting of the Board of Directors as a whole, and meetings of the Committee may be called or requested by the Chairman of the Board or a majority of the directors. The Executive Committee is authorized to act upon all matters requiring Board approval except the declaration of dividends, corporate reorganization, and merger and acquisition decisions. As provided in the By-Laws of the Company, a majority of the directors constitutes a quorum for the purpose of transacting Committee business. No Executive Committee meetings were held in fiscal 2005.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is presently composed of four non-employee directors: Delain G. Danehey (Chairman), Dennis W. Baker, Sheldon Brottman and Joseph F. Lizzadro. The Board of Directors has determined that each of the members of this Committee is an "independent director" as defined by the rules of the American Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors has also determined that Mr. Danehey and Mr. Baker are each an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, a copy of which was attached as an appendix to the proxy statement prepared in connection with the February 23, 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

The Audit Committee is primarily concerned with the effectiveness of the Company's accounting policies and practices, its financial reporting and its internal accounting controls. In addition, the Audit Committee reviews and approves the scope of the annual audit of the Company's books, reviews the findings and recommendations of the independent auditors at the completion of their audit, and approves annual audit fees and the selection of an auditing firm. The Audit Committee met four times during fiscal 2005. In addition, the Chairman of the Audit Committee participated in three quarterly meetings in fiscal 2005, to review earnings press releases and the Company's filings on Form 10-QSB with members of management and the Company's independent auditors.

Compensation and Stock Option Committee

The Compensation and Stock Option Committee is presently composed of four non-employee directors: Sheldon Brotzman (Chairman), Dennis W. Baker, Delain G. Danehey and Joseph F. Lizzadro. The Board of Directors has determined that each of the members of this Committee is an "independent director" as defined by the rules of the American Stock Exchange. The Committee reviews and establishes the Company's compensation policies and practices, including salary and incentive compensation programs for the executive officers of the Company and also oversees the administration of the Company's stock option plans. The Committee has the power to determine from time to time the individuals to whom options shall be granted, the number of shares to be covered by each option, the time or times at which options shall be granted, and the terms of such options. The Compensation and Stock Option Committee met three times during fiscal 2005.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee is composed of four non-employee directors: Dennis W. Baker (Chairman), Sheldon Brotzman, Delain G. Danehey, and Joseph F. Lizzadro. Each member of the Nominating Committee is an "independent director" as defined by the rules of the American Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Nominating Committee, a copy of which was attached as an appendix to the proxy statement prepared in connection with the February 28, 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

The functions of the Nominating Committee are to assist the Board of Directors in identifying, interviewing and recommending to the Board of Directors qualified candidates to fill positions on the Board. The Nominating Committee met twice during fiscal 2005.

In evaluating candidates to serve on the Company's Board of Directors, consideration is given to the level of experience, financial literacy and business acumen of the candidate. In addition, qualified candidates for director are those who, in the judgment of the Committee, have significant decision making responsibility, with business, legal or academic experience. The Nominating Committee will consider recommendations for board candidates that are received from various sources, including: directors and officers of the Company, other business associates and shareholders, and all candidates will be considered on an equal basis, regardless of source. To be considered by the Committee, nominations from shareholders must be submitted according to the procedures described below. There were no nominations received from shareholders for consideration at the 2006 Annual Meeting.

Nominations for Directors

The By-Laws of the Company establish procedures for the nomination of candidates for election to the Board of Directors. The By-Laws provide that the nominations may be made by the Board of Directors or by a committee appointed by the Board of Directors. Any shareholder entitled to vote in the election of directors generally may make nominations for the election of directors to be held at an annual meeting of shareholders, provided that such shareholder has given actual written notice of his intent to make such nomination or nominations to the Secretary of the Company not later than sixty days before the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of shareholders. Each such notice must set forth (a) the name and address of the shareholder who intends to make the nomination and of the person or persons to be nominated; (b) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the Company entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (c) a description of all arrangements or understandings involving any two or more of the shareholders, each such nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholder or relating to the Company or its securities or to such nominee's service as a director if elected; (d) such other information regarding such nominee proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission had the nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, by the Board of Directors; and (e) the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the Company, if so elected.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal control. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-KSB with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles; the reasonableness of significant judgments; and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee under auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal control, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Committee held four meetings during fiscal year 2005.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended September 30, 2005 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Audit Committee has also discussed with representatives of BDO Seidman, LLP their proposal to serve as independent auditors of the Company for the year ending September 30, 2006, and based on these discussions, the Committee approved the selection of BDO Seidman, LLP.
