SCHEDULE 13D

This Amendment No. 1 amends and supplements that statement on Schedule 13D (the "Original Filing") originally filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 28, 2005, by Zeff Holding Company, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Holding"), Zeff Capital Partners, I, L.P. , a Delaware limited partnership ("Capital"), Spectrum Galaxy Fund Ltd., a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands ("Spectrum") and Daniel Zeff, and individual ("Zeff") (Holding, Capital, Spectrum and Zeff are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Reporting Persons") related to the common stock (the "Common Stock") of General Employment Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company"), a Illinois corporation.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 of the Original Filing is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following thereto:

On October 3, 2005, the Filing Persons received a letter from the Company stating that the Company's Board had rejected the Filing Persons' request that the Company either modify its shareholders rights plan (the "poison pill") or explore a sale of the Company to the Filing Persons or a third party. On October 7, 2005, the Reporting Persons submitted a letter to Herbert Imhoff, Jr., again seeking modifications to the poison pill. The Reporting Persons requested that the Company permit the Reporting Persons to acquire up to twenty percent of the Company's Common Stock without triggering the poison pill on the condition that any shares acquired by the Reporting Persons in excess of 10% would be placed in a voting trust and voted in proportion to the vote of disinterested shareholders on any issue. The Reporting Persons believe that the revised proposal presents no threat to corporate policy and that continued enforcement of the poison pill is not in the best interest of shareholders. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit 2.

The Reporting Persons may acquire additional Common Stock of the Company or dispose of Common Stock of the Company at any time and from time to time in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. Although the foregoing represents the range of activities presently contemplated by the Reporting Persons, the scope of possible activities is subject to change.

Except as set forth above, the Reporting Persons do not have any present plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any of the action described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Item 7. Material to be Filed as Exhibits.

Exhibit 1: Joint Filing Agreement, dated as of October 12, 2005, by and among the Reporting Persons.

Exhibit 2: Letter dated October 7, 2005, from Capital to the Company.

SIGNATURES

After reasonable inquiry and to the best of their knowledge and behalf, the undersigned certify that the information set forth in this statement is true, complete and correct.

Exhibit 2

Letter dated October 7, 2005

[Zeff Capital Partners Letterhead]

October 7, 2005

Mr. Herbert Imhoff Jr. Chairman & CEO
General Employment Enterprises, Inc.
One Tower Lane, Suite 2100
Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181

Dear Mr. Imhoff:

Thank you for your response to my letter of September 23rd. I understand that the Board of Directors of General Employment Enterprises ("JOB") does not believe that selling the company at this time is in its shareholders' best interests. Nonetheless, Zeff Capital Partners, LLC ("Zeff Capital"), remains interested in increasing its holdings in JOB. Zeff Capital currently owns approximately 9.94% of JOB's outstanding shares.

As I have previously communicated to you, Zeff Capital requests that the Board of Directors of JOB consent to Zeff Capital's acquisition of up to 20% of JOB's outstanding shares. The terms of JOB's shareholders rights' plan (the "Rights Plan") makes such an acquisition economically prohibitive without the prior consent of the Board. If the purchase is allowed, Zeff Capital will agree to place any shares acquired in excess of 10.0% of the outstanding stock into a voting trust, which shares would be voted pro rata to the vote of all shareholders other than those beneficially owned by Zeff Capital and corporate insiders.

This proposal presents no threat to corporate control, policy or effectiveness. Zeff Capital's acquisition of additional shares in the open market is not coercive to any shareholder in any manner. No shareholder will be required to sell shares at a price other than what they consider to be fair market value. Nor will Zeff Capital acquire any greater ability to influence management or corporate policy. While boards are generally permitted to adopt defensive measures, adoption of those measures or refusal to modify those measures must be reasonable in light of the threat posed to corporate control or policy. In this case, Zeff Capital's acquisition of additional shares, which would be held in a voting trust, presents no such danger to JOB or its shareholders.

As a result, we believe that the Board would not be acting in the best interest of its shareholders if it continues to rely on the Rights Plan to prevent Zeff Capital from acquiring additional shares under the proposed arrangement. Such action would not protect the corporation, but would only deprive JOB's shareholders of the opportunity to liquidate all or a portion of their holdings at a price that they consider to be attractive. In a thinly traded stock such as JOB, Zeff Capital's additional purchases could provide significant liquidity in the public market and increase shareholder value. The primary current effect of the Rights Plan is to unduly burden the free operation of the market for JOB's common stock and to deprive shareholders of the ability to seek current liquidity for their shares at a fair value. While the Rights Plan may have legitimate application in other situations, in the case of Zeff Capital's proposal, it functions solely to the detriment of shareholders.

We understand that your Board will want to carefully evaluate our proposal based on these particular circumstances. We look forward to hearing from you.

Very truly yours,

Daniel Zeff
Managing Member
