Item 3.01, Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On September 24, 2010, General Employment Enterprises, Inc. (the “Company”) received notice from NYSE Amex LLC (the “Exchange”) that the plan (“the Plan”) of compliance submitted by the Company has been accepted. In accepting the Company’s plan, the Exchange granted the Company an extension until December 16, 2011 for the continued listing of the Company’s common stock and for the Company to regain compliance with the continued listing standards. The Company will be subject to periodic review by the Exchange during the extension period. Failure to make progress consistent with the plan or to regain compliance with the continued listing standards by the end of the extension period could result in the Company being delisted from the Exchange.

As previously disclosed, the Company was not in compliance with Section 1003(a)(i) of the Exchange’s Company Guide (“the Company Guide”) because it has stockholders' equity of less than $2,000,000 and has sustained losses from continuing operations and net losses in two of its three most recent fiscal years.

In July, the Company submitted its Plan to the Exchange that set forth the actions the Company has taken and additional actions it will take to regain compliance with Section 1003(a)(i) of the Company Guide.

On September 30, 2010, the Company issued a press release disclosing its receipt of the notice from the Exchange summarized above. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit No. 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01, Financial Statements and Exhibits.

GENERAL EMPLOYMENT ENTERPRISES, INC. RECEIVES NOTICE OF EXTENSION FROM NYSE AMEX

OAKBROOK TERRACE, IL, September 30, 2010 – General Employment Enterprises, Inc. (NYSE Amex: JOB) (the “Company”) today announced that on September 24, 2010, it received notice from NYSE Amex LLC (the “Exchange”) that the plan of compliance submitted by the Company has been accepted by the Exchange and the Company has been granted an extension until December 16, 2011 to regain compliance with the continued listing standards of the Exchange.

As previously disclosed on June 23, 2010, the Company received notice from the Exchange on June 17, 2010 indicating that the Company is not in compliance with one of the requirements of the Exchange’s continued listing standards as set forth in the NYSE Amex Company Guide (the “Company Guide”). Specifically, the Company is not in compliance with Section 1003(a)(i) of the Company Guide, because it has stockholders’ equity of less than $2,000,000 and losses from continued operations and net losses in two out of its three most recent fiscal years. The Company was afforded the opportunity to submit a plan of compliance to the Exchange by July 16, 2010, advising the Exchange how it intends to return to compliance with Section 1003(a)(i) of the Company Guide, and the Company submitted its plan on July 14, 2010.

The Company will be subject to periodic review by the Exchange during the extension period. Failure to make progress consistent with the plan or to regain compliance with the continued listing standards by the end of the extension period could result in the Company being delisted from the Exchange.
