Mr. Kamal began acquiring shares on 10/06/2008.

At 2008 year end, he held 200,000 shares of common stock.

As of February 23, 2009 he now holds 452,401 shares.

Based upon the latest publicly available information, the present holding places Mr. Kamal as the largest outside shareholder with 8.76% of outstanding shares owned.

Mr. Kamal is the owner of a consulting and staffing firm located in the State of California. For the purposes of this transaction, he is engaged as a private investor.

He has no interest in merging his firm into General Employment, and, in contrast, seeks to use his years of experience to collaboratively guide existing management in the form of strategic recommendations to the Board of Directors, to hopefully return General Employment to a state of profitability, and thereby benefit from his investment made into the company.

Up until now Mr. Kamal was in accumulation mode and has not approached or engaged with the Board. He does not seek to exceed 10% ownership of outstanding shares, and is not part of any group of other shareholders. He feels that present ownership is now at a level that he can focus on partnering with management as an outsider looking in, in sharing action steps which he sees as possibly benefiting the company at an operational, strategic, and shareholder level.

With prior background in the Financial Services Industry after graduation from U.C. Berkeley, Mr. Kamal was motivated to start his own staffing firm after spending a day at one of the General Employment Offices in 1996, and seeing a range of inefficiencies at each segment of the operational realm that he felt he could better design on his own. With approved vendorships at several publicly traded corporations in the IT and biotechnology segments today, his operating model has proven to be both successful as well as profitable. While he is hopeful that some of these inefficiencies have since been removed, he seeks to bring his business process reengineering skills to the disposal of the board in crafting a path to operational optimization and refocused strategic positioning of the General Employment brand.

Mr. Kamal seeks to use his experience and insights, from existing depth in the privately held side of the industry as a means to try to hopefully increase the value of his investment made into the stock of General Employment Enterprises over the long term horizon.

First and foremost order of the day is to indeed secure that there is, in fact, a horizon of existence in the near term so as to be able to bring to bear the benefits of the longer term strategic repositioning that will be recommended.

Mr. Kamal intends to offer guidance and advice to the board as recommendations only for their consideration and implementation as they see fit. While the specifics can be worked out in collaboration, some highlights in no particular order include:

Operational Level Recommendations:

Back Office Consolidation

Lead Flow Streamlining

Move beyond cold calling as primary means of getting business

Aggressive Hire from the Competition / Book of Business Acquisition

Plan to upgrade Quality and operating style of Branch Top Producers

Extend brand to successful producers who presently work for other firms

Extend century old history and 40 year publicly traded brand to create commission only locations in key markets presently not covered, possibly in combination with the immediately preceding point

Broaden Solution Set

Staffing Model Change within Branch Locations

Call Center / Hub Based operations with reduced Branch Level staffing

Phase in appropriate overhead expenditure moratoriums until quarterly profitability is achieved

Staff retraining to work in greater number of industrial segments

Strategic Level Recommendations:

Negligible Presence in California, New York, Washington Metro, and RTP Markets

i.e. barely even trying in key IT staffing markets.

Prioritize existing staff marketing efforts to include these segments.

Shareholder Impacting Recommendations:

Given that there are only around 700 shareholders, the fact is that this company is certainly not widely held, and likely stock purchases that would support the stock market price can at this point come largely from existing shareholders. Mr. Kamal recommends a review of shareholder rights plan to see if it can be modified or eliminated in order to open up channels of investment from other possible investors.

Elimination of option grants that have exercise prices that are below cash book value per share

Modest Stock Repurchase Plan

Respondent has acquired the shares for investment purposes, which he feels can succeed if the right initiatives are taken in a timely manner. Respondent may, from time to time and at any time, acquire additional shares in the open market or otherwise, and reserves the right to dispose of any or all of his shares in the open market or otherwise, at any time and from time to time.

Other than as set forth above in this Item 4, the respondent has no plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any other matters referred to in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

ITEM 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

(a) State the aggregate number and percentage of the class of securities identified pursuant to Item 1 (which may be based on the number of securities outstanding as contained in the most recently available filing with the Commission by the issuer unless the filing person has reason to believe such information is not current) beneficially owned (identifying those shares which there is a right to acquire) by each person named in Item 2. The above mentioned information should also be furnished with respect to persons who, together with any of the persons named in Item 2, comprise a group within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Act;

(b) For each person named in response to paragraph (a), indicate the number of shares as to which there is sole power to vote or to direct the vote, shared power to vote or to direct the vote, sole power to dispose or to direct the disposition, or shared power to dispose or to direct the disposition. Provide the applicable information required by Item 2 with respect to each person with whom the power to vote or to direct the vote or to dispose or direct the disposition is shared;

(c) Describe any transactions in the class of securities reported on that were effected during the past sixty days or since the most recent filing of Schedule 13D (ss.240.13d-191), whichever is less, by the persons named in response to paragraph (a).

Instruction. The description of a transaction required by Item 5(c) shall include, but not necessarily be limited to: (1) the identity of the person covered by Item 5(c) who effected the transaction; (2) the date of the transaction; (3) the amount of securities involved; (4) the price per share or unit; and (5) where and how the transaction was effected.

(d) If any other person is known to have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, such securities, a statement to that effect should be included in response to this item and, if such interest relates to more than five percent of the class, such person should be identified. A listing of the shareholders of an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or the beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan, pension fund or endowment fund is not required.

(e) If applicable, state the date on which the reporting person ceased to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the class of securities.

Instruction. For computations regarding securities which represent a right to acquire an underlying security, see Rule 13d-3(d)(1) and the note thereto.

As of the close of business on February 23, 2009, respondent has sole voting and dispositive power over 452,401 shares of General Employment Enterprises, Inc. common stock. According to the latest 10-Q filing, as of February 6, 2009, there were 5,165,265 common shares outstanding. Respondent thereby owns 8.76% of the common stock of the company.

Transactions effected by the respondent in the 60 days prior to the original February 2, 2009 reporting event date of exceeding 5% ownership, as well as the February 17, 2009 date of acquiring additional shares that required an amended 13D to be filed to reflect increased holdings, were performed in ordinary brokerage transactions, and are represented below, including cost of commissions.
